

	The State of Wisconsin's Division of Enterprise Technology (DET) manages the state's IT assets and provides technology services to 52 state agencies and boards. Learn from us as we in turn learn from you! Schedules for internships will be determined in conjunction with each hiring managers. Full time in summer and part time during the school year is a manageable option if desired. The length of each internship is up to 1040 hours. All positions are located in Madison, WI
Job Openings - 2017	Brief Description	Pay Rate
Intern –Server and Network Monitoring	The Division of Enterprise Technology is responsible for the server and networks of many mission critical services across many state agencies. Effectively monitoring these devices is critical to ensure the stability of key applications which the business of those state agencies.	$18/hr
Intern – Security Analyst	The Cyber Security Analyst intern will: gain situational awareness through continuous monitoring of networks and other IT assets for signs of attack, anomalies, and inappropriate activities; determine cause, scope, and impact of incidents to stop unwanted activity, limit damage and prevent recurrence; continuously identify and remediate vulnerabilities before they can be exploited.	$18/hr
Intern –Mainframe Technical Support	The mainframe operating platform hosts many of the state's most critical applications. If you have an aptitude for compute, storage, and network, you might be the right person for this job. This internship will have opportunities to get an overview of the mainframe operating environment plus have an opportunity for training on internal operating components and installation of products.	$18/hr
Intern – Network Access Management	This team is looking for interns who are focused on network access security infrastructure process. If you have an aptitude for network security processes such as multi-factor authentication, Network Access Control, firewall systems and identity management, you may be the correct person for this position. This internship will have opportunities to work with firewall lifecycle replacements, assist in network optimization, participate in application proxy services, and learn Identity control processes.	$18/hr
Intern –LAN/WAN Support	This team is looking for interns to assist with Cisco IOS upgrades, install, maintain, and support Cisco switches, routers and wireless access points, coordinate and schedule lifecycle replacements, and document process, procedure and architecture diagrams for technologies supported by the Section.	$18/hr
Intern – Application Development	As an application developer, this position assists Wisconsin citizens and businesses with energy assistance, allows charitable organizations to renew raffles online and state employees to reserve fleet vehicles. The team assists the state by providing cost- effective and efficient solutions which improves quality of services provided to the citizens and businesses of Wisconsin.	$ 18/hr
Intern – Desktop Support	Do you have a good knowledge of PC software and the ability to install, configure, and troubleshoot software issues? If so, this position may be a perfect fit for you. These interns will perform equipment upgrades and assist with the rollout of Windows 10 and Microsoft Office 365.	$ 15/hr

To be considered for any internship, drop off a copy of your resume at a DET staffed job fair booth and note your area of interest. Employment opportunities will also be posted at <http://wisc.jobs>.